Combining the beautiful natural scenery of Hokkaido with world-famous attractions in Honshu for one fulfilling tour to Japan.

Explore the two main islands of Japan and visit its top destinations. This includes Furano, Biei, Otaru, Noboribetsu, Sapporo, Tokyo, Mt Fuji, Kyoto, Nara, and more. Hokkaido is renowned for its dramatic coastlines, thriving wildlife, ideal climate, and beautiful festivals. Visit Hokkaido’s pristine lakes, a volcanic hot springs valley, the gorgeous countryside, and historical landmarks. The island of Honshu, the largest of Japan’s four main islands, is best known for having the country’s largest cities and major cultural sites. Here, travelers will get to tour widely-celebrated shrines and temples, a Zen garden, colorful shopping districts, a geisha district, and much more.

Select itineraries offer opportunities to enjoy the winter, spring, or summer seasonal events. Participants of this group tour will be able to enjoy the shibazakura season in May, the summer flowers and lavender fields from July to August, or the famous snow monkeys and artistic winter festivals during January and February. These seasonal tours offer an alternative view of Japan throughout its distinct seasons. Taking you from one region to another, these itineraries expand your opportunities to understand a range of Japan’s geography. Each of these prefectures and cities are unique to its own, home to a must-see attraction.
